RDM related services at the University Library

Support and Training

- Support
 - on data management plans
 - third-party funding applications
- Training
 - as an in-person two-hour intro to the different facets of RDM (offered in irregular intervals but available on request)

Data Repository DARE

DARE is the UOL's institutional data repository <https://dare.uol.de>

- Basic data repository, where data can be published in accordance with the FAIR principles
- Data connected to a publication
 - controlled access for peer reviewers
 - DOI as persistent identifier when/if published
- NB: discipline-specific repositories should be given preference!

Other RDM points of contact

- Servicestelle FDM / Service Desk RDM (School VI - Medicine and Health Sciences):
<https://uol.de/en/school6/researchdatamanagement>

- Data stewards (e.g. School V - Natural Sciences and Mathematics):
J. Voßkuhl)

Open Access Publication Services

- DFG-supported Open Access Publication Fund since 2016
- Roughly 2,000 open access publications (co-)financed
- Open Access Office supports authors and manages fund

Requirements

- The corresponding author is a full member of the Carl von Ossietzky University of Oldenburg,
- a peer review guarantees the articles' quality, and
- the journal is a gold open access journal (exceptions apply).

Affiliation Guideline

Mandatory standardized affiliation in publications (<https://uol.de/p100569en>)

Helping you finance your OA publication

Gold Open Access

- APC up to 2,500 Euro (incl. VAT): University Library
- APC over 2,500 Euro (incl. VAT): University Library 2,500 Euros; authors everything above the 2,500 Euros

Hybrid Open Access

- No agreement with publisher: Authors pay the entire amount (or not)
- Publish-and-read or other transformative agreement with publisher: University library pays entire fee

No Gos

- Page Charges, Overlength Charges, Color Charges

Helping you find the “right” journal and publisher

As the number of different publishing models, pricing categories and procedures is constantly increasing, we advise you to contact the Open Access Office before submitting a publication „when in doubt”.
